7. HUMAN SUBJECTS PROTECTIONS

In the event that the Scope of Work involves the use of humans as research subjects, the parties will conduct such research in accordance with the written protocol approved by any Institutional Review/Ethics Board(s) or oversight body as required by federal law or the parties’ institutional policies, other applicable law, and the University’s ethical standards.

8. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Unless otherwise required by law, the parties will maintain in confidence proprietary or trade secret information disclosed or submitted to them by the other party which is designated in writing as confidential information at the time of disclosure (“Confidential Information”).

Confidential Information does not include information which at the time of receipt:
(a) Is generally available in the public domain or thereafter becomes available to the public through no act of the receiving party; or
(b) Was independently known prior to receipt thereof or was discovered independently by an employee of the receiving party who had no access to the information supplied by the disclosing party under this Agreement; or
(c) Was made available to the receiving party as a matter of lawful right by a third party.

Each party retains the right to refuse to accept any information which is not considered to be essential to the completion of the project.

The obligations of the parties under this paragraph shall survive and continue for one (1) year after termination of this Agreement.

9. PUBLICATION

The University and its employees shall have the right, at their discretion, to release information or to publish any data, writings, or material resulting from the Research or to use such in any way for its educational and research purposes. The University shall furnish XYZ with a copy of any proposed publication in advance of the proposed publication date and grant XYZ thirty (30) days for review and comment. Such delay shall not, however, be imposed on the filing of any student thesis or dissertation.

10. INDEPENDENT INQUIRY

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to limit the freedom of researchers who are participants in this Agreement, whether paid under this Agreement or not, from engaging in similar research inquiries made independently under other grants, contracts or agreements with parties other than XYZ.

11. LIABILITY

XYZ agrees to hold harmless the University from any loss, claim, damage, or liability of any kind, arising out of or in connection with this Agreement. To the extent authorized by secs. 893.82 and 895.46(1), Wis. Stats., the University agrees to hold harmless XYZ, its officers, agents and employees from any and all liability including claims, demands, losses, costs, damages and expenses of every kind and description (including death), or damages to persons or property arising out of or in connection with or occurring during the course of this agreement where such liability is founded upon or grows out of the acts or omissions of any of the officers, employees or agents of the University.

12. INSURANCE

University warrants and represents that it has adequate liability coverage, such coverage being applicable to officers, employees, and agents while acting within the scope of their employment by University. The University may request proof of insurance from XYZ at any time.
13. PUBLICITY

Neither party shall use the name of the other party in connection with any products, promotion, or advertising without the prior written approval of the named party.

14. TERMINATION

This Agreement may be terminated by either party at any time prior to its full term of performance provided that a written notice is given to the other party thirty (30) days in advance. In the event of termination by XYZ, the University will be reimbursed for all non-cancelable costs and commitments incurred in performance of the study through the effective date of the termination.

15. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement is made in accordance with and shall be governed and construed under the laws of the State of Wisconsin.

16. WAIVER & SEVERABILITY

Failure to insist upon compliance with any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall not constitute a general waiver or relinquishment of any such terms or conditions, and the same shall remain at all times in full force and effect. If any part of this Agreement is held unenforceable, the rest of the Agreement will remain in full force and effect.

17. ASSIGNMENT

Neither party shall assign or transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the written consent of the other party.

18. MISCELLANEOUS

This Agreement is the entire understanding between the parties relative to this project. This Agreement may be changed only by written modification signed by both parties.

This Agreement shall take precedence over any conflicting administrative language contained in the Project.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement in duplicate by proper persons duly authorized.
